

South Australian Division

Presidents Report 3/2015

Greetings fellow members, you may recall in my last report I indicated the distribution of “Wings“ magazine was being examined with a view to distributing free to all members. This has now come to fruition and I am pleased to advise that commencing with the first edition for 2016 the magazine will be distributed to all members wishing to partake in the offer. Those of you who have not indicated your preference are encouraged to contact HQ (SA) Division and advise your preferred option: to have the magazine delivered as a hard copy, or provide your email address so that it can be sent electronically.

During September we held a ceremony at the RAAF Memorial Plaques to observe the Battle of Britain commemoration. The weather was great and as usual the AAFC’s gave a very professional display. We are in debt to the cadets and their instructors for all their support to us. Without their input the day would not be as memorable.

Staying on the theme of the Battle of Britain, I am happy to report that a Cocktail party arranged by the British High Commission, was held at the National War Memorial in Canberra on the 15th September and we were able to send Bob Cowper and his grandson David to that function. I have it on good authority that Both Bob and David had wonderful time hobnobbing with the Governor General and a number of other distinguished people including the Chief of Defence Force.

I would also like to take this opportunity to congratulate Bob Macintosh on his well deserved award of an OAM in this years Honours List.

As this will be the last HQ News for the year, I would like to take the opportunity to thank the State Council members for their support and guidance throughout the year and to wish all members and their family’s season’s greetings and a healthy and prosperous New Year.

Until our next News: “Stand easy”

Dave